Addition of Cryptocurrencies Offered by Coincheck

Coincheck, Inc. (Head office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo, President: Toshihiko Katsuya, hereinafter referred to as "Coincheck") is pleased to announce that it resumed depositing and purchasing services for ETH, XEM and LSK today after verifying the technical safety of these services with the supports of external experts. This follows the partial resumption of services including new account openings and depositing and purchasing of certain cryptocurrencies announced on Tuesday, October 30, 2018.

Services resumed as of today (November 12, 2018)

- Customers' depositing and purchasing of certain cryptocurrencies (ETH, XEM and LSK)

Services currently available (as of November 12, 2018)

- New account openings (Domestic residents only)
- Depositing and purchasing cryptocurrencies (for BTC, ETC, LTC, BCH, ETH, XEM and LSK only)
- Remitting and selling cryptocurrencies (for all tradable cryptocurrencies on Coincheck)
- Depositing and withdrawing JPY
- Making settlements and margin deposits/withdrawals on existing leveraged transactions

(Customers who already hold leveraged positions remain qualified for exercising settlement transactions and transferring margin deposits and withdrawals. Note that new leveraged transactions are still currently suspended.)

- Coincheck cryptocurrency lending service (for all tradable cryptocurrencies on Coincheck)

Services in preparation for resumption (as of November 12, 2018)

Coincheck will continue to verify the safety of the following services and resume them as soon as they are ready.

- Depositing and purchasing XRP and FCT
- Leveraged transactions for new positions
- Affiliate service
- JPY depositing through convenience stores
- JPY quick depositing (Pay-easy)
- Coincheck Payment
- Coincheck DENKI (electricity)

Coincheck joined the NPO Japan Network Security Association (JNSA)

Coincheck joined the NPO Japan Network Security Association (JNSA) on November 1, 2018. By gaining membership to JNSA, which counts many security experts and security-related companies and organizations as members, we will use this opportunity to continue enhancing our security and operations.
