TradeStation Supports Trading of Micro Futures from Eurex

New launch addresses demand for smaller sized futures and overnight liquidity, allowing for more flexible and targeted trading and hedging strategies.

Plantation, FL (April 27, 2021) – TradeStation Securities, Inc. \(“TradeStation”\), a Monex Group company and award-winning* broker-dealer and futures commission merchant, now offers its futures clients the ability to trade micro futures contracts from Eurex, one of the largest futures and options markets in the world. TradeStation clients can now trade Micro-DAX and Micro-EURO STOXX 50 futures through its TradeStation desktop platform, web and mobile applications, which provide advanced visualization and analysis tools.

“We’re proud to offer our futures customers new micro futures. In addition to competitive margin rates and commissions, customers will have expanded access to European markets and overnight liquidity. By supporting new products like Eurex micro futures contracts, we aim to set ourselves apart from many other platforms,” said John Bartleman, President of TradeStation Group, Inc., TradeStation’s parent company. “TradeStation is among only a few U.S. brokerages supporting the Eurex micro futures contracts and we’re excited to help Eurex continue expanding into the U.S.”

“The new contracts are the right size not only for investors and traders with smaller investment accounts, but also for institutions and professionals seeking to scale their equity index exposure and to hedge existing equity portfolio positions,” said Randolph Roth, member of the Eurex Executive Board.
