Launch of Financial Instruments Intermediary Business Services by Monex and the Shinsei Bank Group

Tokyo (Tuesday, January 4, 2022) --- Monex, Inc. (Representative Director and President; Yuko Seimei; hereinafter, “Monex”), Shinsei Bank, Limited (President and Chief Executive Officer; Hideyuki Kudo; hereinafter, “Shinsei Bank”), and Shinsei Securities Co., Ltd. (100% subsidiary of Shinsei Bank, President and Representative Director; Yasuhiro Iwamoto; hereinafter, "Shinsei Securities," and together with Shinsei Bank, "Shinsei Bank Group") launched a comprehensive business partnership (hereinafter, the “Partnership”) in the financial instruments intermediary business that was announced on January 27, 2021.

1. Overview of the Partnership

Shinsei Bank and Shinsei Securities transferred the rights and obligations related to Shinsei Bank’s investment trust accounts and Shinsei Securities’ bond safekeeping accounts of individual customers mainly involved in the financial instruments intermediary business with Shinsei Bank to Monex on January 4 through a company split (hereinafter, “Company Split”).

Under the new structure, after the transfer, Shinsei Bank is to continue to solicit, sell, and follow up on investment trusts, bonds, and other financial instruments to existing customers and new customers of the Bank, under consignment of financial instruments intermediary business entrusted by Monex. In addition, Shinsei Securities mainly acts as an intermediary for Monex to provide bond services. Monex is to execute transactions with customers and manage their accounts.

2. Newly launched services and functions

Through the Partnership, customers of Shinsei Bank can access Monex's broad product lineup. Major products and their outline are as follows.

• Equity-related services (Japanese stocks and U.S. stocks)

Monex offers a low-cost way to start trading stocks. The commission for Japanese stocks is 110 yen (in the case of commission courses per transaction and cash trades). One Kabu Service (stocks less than one unit) allows customers to trade from one share even if they do not have a lump sum of money for investment, and the purchase commission is free (0 yen).

U.S. stocks, for which there is growing demand, are also becoming easier to trade. U.S. equity trading tools of TradeStation, a U.S.-based group company of Monex, are also compatible with smartphone apps. The number of issues handled is abundant, at over 4,700, with transaction fees of 0.495% of the commitment amount (minimum US$0 to maximum US$22). In addition, Monex supports transactions with a variety of functions, including a periodic purchase service that also supports the reinvestment of dividends.

Monex professionals provide easy-to-understand information through reports and seminars with a full range of stock information.

* The fees are inclusive of taxes. The number of issues handled for U.S. stocks is the sum of individual stocks, ADRs, and ETFs (including issues available for sell order only).

• Investment trust-related services

Customers of Shinsei Bank can select from over 1,200 funds as Shinsei Bank has added funds handled by Monex in its product lineup. The investment trust accumulation investment service allows customers daily accumulation investment in addition to monthly accumulation investment.

In addition, the outline of the new functions to be provided in conjunction with the Partnership is as follows.
