

Announcement regarding the Registration Statements for Nasdaq listing of Coincheck Group B.V. being Declared Effective

TOKYO, November 13, 2024 - Coincheck Group B.V. (“CCG” or “Coincheck Group”) (*1), a consolidated subsidiary of Monex Group, Inc. (headquarters: Tokyo, Japan; Representative Executive Officer and CEO: Yuko Seimei; the “Company”), has been diligently preparing for listing its common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market (“Nasdaq”) through a previously announced business combination with Thunder Bridge Capital Partners IV, Inc. (“THCP” or “Thunder Bridge”), a special purpose acquisition company (“SPAC”) listed on Nasdaq (the “CCG De-SPAC Transaction”) pursuant to the Business Combination Agreement, dated March 22, 2022 and amended May 31, 2023, May 28, 2024 and October 8, 2024, among CCG and certain of its affiliates and THCP (*2). Today, we are excited to announce that the registration statements on Form F-4 (the “Form F-4”) filed with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in connection with the CCG De-SPAC Transaction has become effective on November 12, 2024 (EST).

(*1) Prior to the Nasdaq listing of its common stock, Coincheck Group B.V., a Dutch private limited company, through an organization change, will become Coincheck Group N.V., a Dutch public limited company.

(*2) Please refer to our press releases on the CCG De-SPAC Transaction, including, but not limited to, the press release dated March 22, 2022 “Coincheck Group B.V. to become public on the Nasdaq through a De-SPAC with Thunder Bridge Capital Partners IV, Inc.” https://www.monexgroup.jp/en/news_release/irnews/auto_20220309503075/pdfFile.pdf

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed business combination, the parties have filed relevant materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including a registration statement on Form F-4 filed by CCG, which includes a proxy statement/prospectus of THCP, and other documents regarding the proposed business combination with the SEC. CCG most recently filed an amended preliminary proxy statement/prospectus on Form F-4 with the SEC on November 7, 2024, which became effective on November 12, 2024 (EST). THCP’s shareholders and other interested persons are advised to read the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus and the amendments thereto and, when available, the definitive proxy statement and documents incorporated by reference therein filed in connection with the proposed business combination, as these materials contain and will contain important information about CCG, Coincheck, THCP and the proposed business combination. Promptly after the effectiveness of the F-4, THCP will mail the definitive proxy statement/prospectus and a proxy card to each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting relating to the approval of the proposed business combination and other proposals set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus. Before making any voting or investment decision, investors and shareholders of THCP are urged to carefully read the entire registration statement and proxy statement/prospectus, when they become available, and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to these documents, because they will contain important information about the proposed business combination. The documents filed by THCP with the SEC may be obtained free of charge at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov, or by directing a request to Thunder Bridge Capital Partners IV, Inc., 9912 Georgetown Pike, Suite D203, Great Falls, Virginia 22066, Attention: Secretary, (202) 431-0507.

Participants in the Solicitation

THCP and its directors and executive officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from its shareholders with respect to the proposed business combination. A list of the names of those directors and executive officers and a description of their interests in THCP will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus for the proposed business combination when available at www.sec.gov. Information about THCP's directors and executive officers and their ownership of THCP common stock is set forth in THCP prospectus, dated June 29, 2021, as modified or supplemented by any Form 3 or Form 4 filed with the SEC since the date of such filing. Other information regarding the interests of the participants in the proxy solicitation will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus pertaining to the proposed business combination when it becomes available. These documents can be obtained free of charge from the source indicated above.

CCG, Coincheck and their respective directors and executive officers may also be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of THCP in connection with the proposed business combination. A list of the names of such directors and executive officers and information regarding their interests in the proposed business combination will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus for the proposed business combination.

Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about future financial and operating results, our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations, products and services; and other statements identified by words such as "will likely result," "are expected to," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimated," "believe," "intend," "plan," "projection," "outlook" or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding Coincheck's industry and market sizes, future opportunities for CCG, Coincheck and THCP, Coincheck's estimated future results and the proposed business combination between THCP and Coincheck, including the implied enterprise value, the expected transaction and ownership structure and the likelihood, timing and ability of the parties to successfully consummate the proposed transaction. Such forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of our management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond our control. Actual results and the timing of events may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in THCP's reports filed with the SEC and those identified elsewhere in this communication, the following factors, among others, could cause actual results and the timing of events to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: inability to meet the closing conditions to the business combination, including the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Business Combination Agreement; the inability to complete the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement due to the failure to obtain approval of THCP's shareholders, the failure to achieve the minimum amount of cash available following any redemptions by THCP shareholders, redemptions exceeding a maximum threshold or the failure to meet Nasdaq listing standards in connection with the consummation of the contemplated transactions; costs related to the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement; a delay or failure to realize the expected benefits from the proposed business combination; risks related to disruption of management's time from ongoing business operations due to the proposed business combination; changes in the cryptocurrency and digital asset markets in which Coincheck competes, including with respect to its competitive landscape, technology evolution or regulatory changes; changes in domestic and global general economic conditions, risk that Coincheck may not be able to execute its growth strategies, including identifying and executing acquisitions; risk that Coincheck may not be able to develop and maintain effective internal controls; and other risks and uncertainties indicated in THCP's final prospectus, dated June 29, 2021, for its initial public offering, and the proxy statement/prospectus relating to the proposed business combination, including those under "Risk Factors" therein, and in THCP's other filings with the SEC. CCG, THCP and Coincheck caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive.

No Offer or Solicitation

This press release shall not constitute a solicitation of a proxy, consent, or authorization with respect to any securities or in respect of the proposed business combination. This press release shall also not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any states or jurisdictions in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offering of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or an exemption therefrom.
